Happenings of a Local and Personal Nature.

Mrs. Inez Morris and Ida Lewis spent Sunday with their father, E. E. Mauldin.

Johnnie, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Griffin, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Mrs. J. F. Harris spent last Friday in Easley with her mother, Mrs. M. J. Harris, who is quite sick.

W. H. Griffin, of Greenville, spent a portion of last week with his mother, Mrs. Florence Griffin, in Pickens.

Rev. S. P. McCarty will preach at Gap Hill next Sunday in March, at 10 a. m., and at Fairview at 3 p. m.

Miss Ellen Mae Welborn, who is attending the G. F. C., spent part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Welborn, of Pickens, R. 3.

Mrs. W. L. Ellis, of Easley, and Miss Rosa Ellis, a charming young lady of Greenville, were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. R. L. Davis, Friday.

Miss Essie Earle and her brother Ewin have gone to Florida to spend several weeks. They will also visit their aunt, Mrs. J. B. Martin, at Ocklawaha, Ga.

Misses Ilene and Lorena Taylor, of the G. F. C., spent part of last week with their parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. T. Taylor. They were accompanied over by their friend, Miss Harper.

Married, on the 23d inst., by B. J. Johnson, P. O. Johnson and Miss Alice May Williams, all of Catechee. The happy young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Prof. J. W. Looper jumps us for not publishing ALL of his article last week, entitled "A Progressive School," and calls on us to explain why. The reason is we are not a mind-reader and could not supply the balance out of our own thoughts. We gave space to everything that Mr. Looper sent to this office. He very evidently overlooked some of the pages when he went to mail copy to us.

We UNDERSTAND that Pickens Chapter of R. A. M. had an installation of their officers last Friday night, the exercises being held in the schoolhouse, after which a banquet was served. Some say the exercises were "public," while others say they were not, as invitations were sent out, so the editor of this paper can say nothing—if it was public he was not notified, nor asked to make mention of the fact, and he is of the opinion that it was "very private" and select, because he does not belong to this branch of the order, and he received no "invitation" to attend or any notice for publicity to the effect "that there was anything doing" and a request to publish same. He is not a member of this branch of the order, and, as a consequence, has to depend on the committees and "those in authority" to tell him of these proceedings, and as nothing has been "communicated" to him, he is constrained to the belief that everything was "exceedingly quiet," and those who attended the exercises or the supper, that were not members of this order, were very much out of their place. It was strictly a R. A. M. meeting.

The local chapter U. D. C. held a most interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. T. J. Mauldin last Friday.

Mrs. N. E. Thornley, who has been on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Olive Oliver, in Nashville, Tenn., for some time, on account of sickness, returned home Friday. She reports that "Miss Olive" was considerably better when she left, and able to sit up.

ED. SENTINEL:—I beg to thank you for the magnificent silver set which I have received from you. I highly appreciate same, and it is certainly a beautiful set. I also this occasion to extend my thanks to my friends who so kindly helped me during the contest. Again thanking you, and with best wishes for the success of the S. J., I am yours truly, KATIE EPPENS.

Six Mile church was burned to the ground Tuesday morning. The building was being used as a schoolhouse and school was in session at the time. It caught in the wall where a joint of piping had become loose. The organ was saved. This is the second church that has been burned at this spot. There was no insurance on the building. An effort will be made to rebuild as soon as possible.

Dr. L. O. Mauldin, of Greenville, spent a few days last week in Pickens.

There were a good many visitors, members of the order from other towns, that were present at the R. A. M. installation Friday night.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church served dinner Tuesday and Wednesday, in the Masonic hall building. They were well patronized, they set a good table, and cleared something over $50, which will be used for church extension work.

Rev. P. F. Crawford was unable to fill his appointment at the Pickens Baptist church on account of sickness. Rev. J. M. Stewart filled the appointment, and preached an excellent sermon to a highly appreciative congregation.
